About licenses and permits

The money collected from saltwater fishing licenses and permits is used to improve and restore fish habitat and for marine fisheries research, law enforcement and public education on marine resources. Recreational licenses and permits, including reprints, are available at GoOutdoorsFlorida.com, Fish|Hunt FL app, tax collectors' offices, license agents, or by calling toll-free 888-FISH-FLORIDA (347-4356). Handling fees apply to telephone and internet sales. See more information on page 22.

Thank you for contributing to conservation

Your purchases of fishing equipment, motorboat fuel and fishing licenses help improve fishing and boating opportunities in Florida through the Federal Aid in Sport Fish Restoration program (SFR). SFR is a successful cycle of federal funding that includes anglers, the fishing and boating industry, and conservation agencies with the goal to restore and better manage America's recreational fisheries. Funding is derived through an excise tax on fishing gear and motorboat fuel, paid by anglers through fishing and boating manufacturers.

Through this federal "user-pay, public-benefit" system of conservation, millions of dollars in funding each year go toward fisheries research, habitat management, stock enhancement, artificial reefs, boating access improvements, angler outreach and aquatic education. To learn more about how everyone benefits from enhanced fishing opportunities provided through the program, visit MyFWC.com/SFR.

Message from the FWC by Chairman Rodney Barreto

From websites to workshops, communications are one of the most important things the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) does. We pride ourselves in improving access not only to Florida's iconic fisheries but also to the people who manage them. And we are continually working on improving our tools of communication in order to better serve a growing and ever tech-savvy public.

Last year, we saw improvements in customer service through the agency's newly updated official online recreational licensing website, GoOutdoorsFlorida.com and the Fish | Hunt Florida app.

With almost 3 million users a year, Florida's online licensing system is often one of the first FWC touchpoints many new anglers and hunters visit.

The new system improved the customer experience through a more streamlined look and feel, and offers enhanced navigation, making it easier for our stakeholders to navigate the site.

In addition to improving the customer experience, we continue to provide improved access to our fisheries management staff.

We also greatly improved the look and feel of the Marine Fisheries Management Monthly Newsletter, Fishing in the Know, which we send out via our online email delivery system, GovDelivery. This email blast keeps our stakeholders up-to-date on regulation changes, Commission meeting news, upcoming events, and other important topics. Sign up to receive this and other emailed or texted communications from us at MyFWC.com/News by clicking "Sign Up for News Releases."

Communications isn't just about what we push out to you though, it is also the important input you provide to us.

In 2021, FWC Marine Fisheries staff hosted the 7th Snook Symposium and the first ever Redfish Summit along with 14 redfish workshops. At these meetings, staff spoke with more than 400 stakeholders about the future management of these fisheries.

Staff also fielded more than 1,500 comments submitted online through the MyFWC.com/SaltwaterComments page and talked with countless stakeholders on the phone and through email.

We are thankful for each and every one of our customers and stakeholders who visit us online, via email, and in person. Let us know how we are doing.

This input is valuable, and we urge you to continue the conversation by reaching out to us at Marine@MyFWC.com, at MyFWC.com/SaltwaterComments or at 850-487-0554.

2021 Lionfish Challenge Results

The FWC is excited to announce the winners of the 2021 Lionfish Challenge. The sixth annual Lionfish Challenge boasted over 470 registered participants and 21,146 lionfish harvested.

The state-wide incentive program encouraged 185 participants to turn in lionfish from May 21 to Sept. 6, 2021; the highest participation since the Challenge's inception in 2016.

The race to number one was tight this year, with only 157 fish separating the top three competitors in the recreational division, and only 72.6 pounds of lionfish separating the top three competitors in the commercial division. In the end though, two competitors prevailed.

Lionfish King: Brooks Feeser

Brooks Feeser, a resident of Palm Beach County, removed 1,632 lionfish this summer, earning himself the title of 2021 Lionfish King. Brooks grew up an outdoorsman, hunting and fishing here in Florida. He began scuba diving only four years ago, but quickly trained up to be a PADI Divemaster. He is now a licensed charter captain and owns Fully Saturated, an all-inclusive saltwater company offering for-hire fishing, diving, and cruising charter services.

Commercial Champion, Rachel Bowman

Commercial Champion: Rachel Bowman

Rachel Bowman of Monroe County managed to harvest 730 pounds of lionfish this year, securing her first place in the Commercial Division and earning her the title of 2021 Commercial Champion. Rachel has been active in lionfish removal for many years and started selling lionfish commercially back in 2012. She has represented the agency as the Lionfish Huntress on our social media channels and in marketing, and, along with Team Florida Man, has taken first place more than once at tournaments associated with FWC's annual Lionfish Removal and Awareness Day. Bowman is the first female to take first place in a Lionfish Challenge!

The winners were recognized at the October FWC Commission Meeting in St. Augustine. They were awarded with a custom wood-burned trophy created by Mokie Burns, as well as $150 for scuba tank air fills, and an HP 100 steel scuba cylinder.

Lionfish King, Brooks Feeser

Special thanks to all 51 business that served as checkpoints around the state this year. The Lionfish Challenge would not be possible without the help of these organizations.

Hooked a Bird? Don't Cut the Line!

Even if you take precautionary steps to avoid it, sometimes you might hook a bird by accident. That's when it's important to remember—don't cut the line and let the bird fly away with it attached. This can lead to entanglement and death of birds (and an inconvenient loss of line). Instead, follow these simple steps to unhook the bird: Reel. Remove. Release.

1. Wear safety glasses and enlist a partner for help.
2. Reel the bird in slowly and lift it from the water using a hoop net.
3. Grasp the bird by the head just behind the eyes and fold the wings against the body. For pelicans, hold the beak, keeping the mouth slightly open so it can breathe. Cover the bird's head with a cloth to keep it calm.
4. Remove the barb and hook from the bird using pliers or clippers. If the bird is entangled, remove all line.
5. Release the bird (if healthy) by placing it on the ground near the water and allowing it to take off.
6. If the bird has swallowed the hook or is severely injured, contact a local seabird rehabilitator. For help finding one, use the link to the locator app at MyFWC.com/Unhook.

How else can you keep the seabirds away from your fish and reduce entanglement?

1. Don't feed the birds, which teaches them to approach where they are more likely to interfere with fishing.
2. Dispose of filleted bones where birds can't get them — in a trash can with lid or at home.
3. Cover bait buckets and take unused bait home.
4. Dispose of fishing line in a monofilament recycling bin or cut into small pieces and place in the trash.
5. Don't leave your line unattended.
6. Cast carefully to avoid being snared on trees, bridge piles, power lines or obstacles.
7. Help others learn what to do when they accidentally hook a bird. It's pretty easy, once you know how.

Can't find your fish in the regulations?

Florida's coastal waters are home to thousands of marine species, and the majority of these species have no specific regulations with regard to bag limits, size limits, gear restrictions or closed seasons. These species are often referred to as "unregulated species," although the name can be a bit misleading. State law provides that for any marine species that does not have specific regulations, harvesting more than 100 pounds or two fish (whichever is the greater amount) constitutes a commercial quantity and requires a commercial license. This means the recreational harvest limit for any unregulated species is 100 pounds or two organisms if the combined weight of the two organisms exceeds 100 pounds.

Examples of "unregulated species" include: Ladyfish, bonito, menhaden, white grunt, southern stingray, gulf kingfish (whiting), pinfish, Atlantic croaker, jack crevalle, cero mackerel, hardhead catfish, gafftopsail catfish, lionfish.

* No license is required to harvest lionfish by dipnet, pole spear or Hawaiian sling and lionfish bag limit is unlimited for both Gulf and Atlantic state waters.

- ★ Spearing Prohibited
- ▲ Must remain in whole condition (removal of gills and guts allowed).
- ◆ Measured as total length. Total length is the straight line distance from the most forward part of the head with the mouth closed to the farthest tip of the tail with the tail compressed or squeezed together while the fish is lying on its side.
- State regulations apply in federal waters.
- Additional gear rules apply, please see: MyFWC.com
- † Harvest prohibited by or with the use of any multiple hook (any hook with two or more points and a common shaft) in conjunction with live or dead natural bait.
- X State Reef Fish Angler designation required when fishing for select reef fish species from a private vessel in the Gulf of Mexico or Atlantic Ocean.

Big Fish Need a Little Extra Care to Survive Release

Everyone loves catching big fish but these monster catches often need the most care to survive release.

Larger fish are important to maintain healthy fish populations because they are typically more successful spawners. Keep these tips in mind to give big fish a fighting chance and help maintain and improve your Florida fisheries.

- Keep large fish in the water to reduce stress or injury to the fish.
- Use heavy tackle to bring fish in quickly, reducing the chance of exhaustion.
- Always revive fish showing signs of exhaustion by allowing a consistent flow of water through the mouth and over the gills. Use a “figure eight motion” if you are fishing from a stationary location.
- Do not gaff a fish unless you intend to harvest it.
- Use a descending device or venting tool on fish with signs of barotrauma (bloating belly, stomach projecting from the mouth, protruding intestines, bulging eyes.)

If you must remove fish from the water:

- Get them back in the water as soon as possible.
- Always hold them horizontally and support their weight with two hands.

- Use wet hands, never a towel or other cloth that can remove their protective slime.
- Keep fingers out of the eyes and gills.
- Do not drag them over rocks, the gunnel of a boat, the side of a dock, pier or any other rough surface.

Fishing from bridges or piers:

- Only bring fish onto the pier or bridge if you intend to harvest.
- Only target large fish from bridges or piers if you have specialized gear (pier nets or slings) to support their full body. Bringing up large fish without proper gear or allowing them to freefall large distances can cause injury and increase mortality.
- If you cannot properly lift the fish, cut the line as close to the fish as possible before releasing it back into the water. (This may mean walking this fish to the shore if fishing from a pier.)

Other tips:

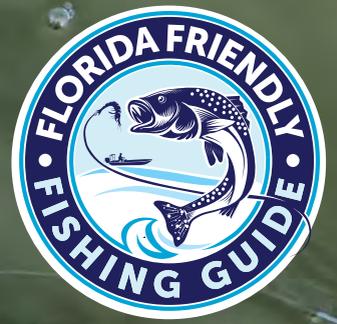

- Correctly using a dehooking tool can help you quickly and easily remove hooks.
- Use barbless non-stainless, non-offset circle hooks.
- Use single hooks with artificial lures.
- Do not fish when large predatory fish or sharks are in the area. If they show up, move to another fishing location.
- Encourage other anglers to use these practices too. Learn more at MyFWC.com/FishHandling.

ARTIFICIAL REEFS

Florida manages one of the most diverse, and most active artificial reef programs in the United States. As of November 2021, the FWC Artificial Reef Program has recorded over 3,920 artificial reef deployment locations state-wide. So far in 2021, 82 new artificial reefs have been constructed and the locations from a subset of those new reefs are listed in the table below. To download a complete list of Florida’s artificial reef locations in a variety of digital formats, view an interactive map, and learn more about Florida’s artificial reef program please visit MyFWC.com/ArtificialReefs

Help Plan the Future of the Kristin Jacobs Coral Reef Ecosystem Conservation Area

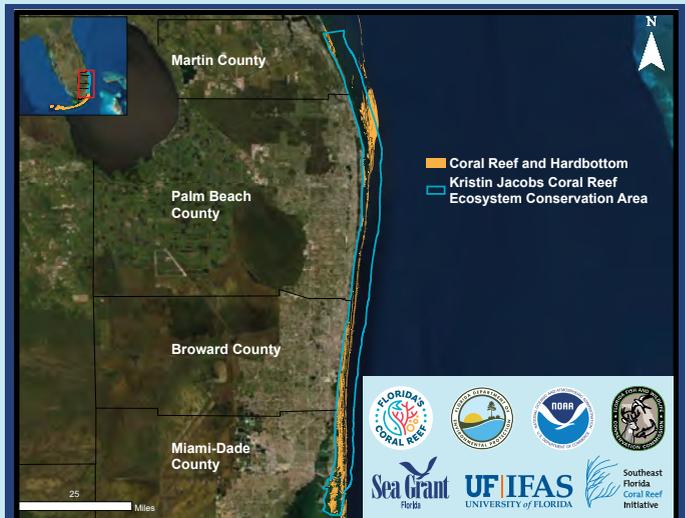

The Kristin Jacobs Coral Reef Ecosystem Conservation Area (Coral ECA) is a newly renamed conservation area offshore of Martin, Palm Beach, Broward and Miami-Dade counties. The area stretches from the St. Lucie Inlet to the northern boundary of Biscayne National Park and includes state waters and sovereign submerged lands.

A fisheries stakeholder committee has been formed to develop recommendations to enhance the coral reef ecosystem and fishing quality in the Coral ECA. These recommendations will be shared with local, state and federal government agencies to help guide management of these waters.

The committee has engaged in discussions related to important environmental issues impacting the Coral ECA, including water quality, habitat loss and coral disease.

The committee seeks to engage the fishing and diving community in Southeast Florida by distributing a public survey and encouraging participation in public meetings.

Reef fish gear rules

(applies to species marked with ● on pages 10-11)

- Gulf of Mexico: These regulations require the use of a dehooking device when recreationally fishing for reef fish in the Gulf of Mexico. All persons aboard a vessel harvesting reef fish must possess and use non-stainless steel non-offset circle hooks when using natural baits.
- Atlantic Ocean: Recreational and commercial fishers are required to use dehooking devices as needed while fishing for reef fish. (New) When fishing for reef fish using hook-and-line with natural baits from a vessel, non-stainless steel, non-offset circle hooks are required N. of 28 degrees N. latitude and non-stainless steel hooks are required S. of 28 degrees N. latitude

These rules apply to all members of the reef fish complex including groupers, snappers, amberjacks, red porgy, gray triggerfish, black sea bass, golden tilefish, banded rudderfish, speckled hind and others. For a complete species list, please visit MyFWC.com.

Hook-and-line gear

Hook-and-line anglers must tend their gear at all times to prevent people, marine life and shore life from becoming entangled in the line or injured by the hook. Also, it is against the law to intentionally discard any monofilament netting or line into or onto state waters. Monofilament line can entangle birds, marine mammals, marine turtles and fish, often injuring or killing them. Trot lines with 10 or fewer hooks are considered hook-and-line gear and must be tended at all times while deployed. Species identified with "T" on pages 10 through 13 cannot be harvested with multi-hooks (single hook with two or more points) in conjunction with natural baits.

Nets

The following types of nets may be used for recreational purposes in Florida waters:

- Bully nets (for lobster only) no greater than 3 feet in diameter and not made of monofilament.
- Frame nets and push nets (for shrimp only) no greater than 16 feet in perimeter and not made of monofilament. Frame nets cannot be used in state waters off Dade County.
- Hand-held landing or dip nets no greater than 96 inches in perimeter.
- Cast nets measuring 14 feet or less stretched length (stretched length is defined as the distance from the horn at the center of the net with the net gathered and pulled taut, to the lead line).

- Beach or haul seines measuring no larger than 500 square feet of mesh area, no larger than 2 inches stretched mesh size, not constructed of monofilament, and legibly marked at both ends with the harvester's name and address if a Florida resident. Non-residents using beach or haul seines for recreational purposes are required to have a commercial saltwater products license and legibly mark the seine at both ends with the harvester's saltwater products license number.
- Cast nets and seines may be used as harvesting gear for the following species only: black drum, bluefish, cobia, flounder, mullet, Florida pompano, red drum, sheepshead, shrimp, Spanish mackerel, weakfish and unregulated species (see p. 12).
- No more than two nets can be fished from any vessel and no more than one net can be fished by any person not on a vessel.

Explosives, etc.

The use of powerheads, explosives, chemicals or the discharge of firearms to kill or harvest marine life is prohibited in state waters.

Spearing

Spearing is a general term that includes bow fishing, gigging, spearfishing (underwater), or the use of any other device to capture a fish by piercing its body. Spearing does not include snagging or snatch hooking by hook and line. Marine species harvested by spearing are subject to the same recreational regulations (e.g., bag limits, size limits, and closed seasons) as those marine species that are harvested by any other type of recreationally-allowed gear. The following is a list of species or groups of species that are prohibited from harvest by all forms of spearing in state waters:

- All prohibited species (listed on p. 10-13)
- Billfish (all species)
- Bonefish
- Crab (blue, stone)
- Caribbean spiny lobster (Panulirus argus)
- Goliath grouper
- Manta ray
- Nassau grouper
- Permit
- Pompano (Florida and African)
- Red drum
- Sharks (all species including dogfish)
- Snook
- Spotted eagle ray
- Spotted seatrout
- Sturgeon
- Tarpon
- Tripletail
- Weakfish
- Marine life species (listed on p. 14)

* Volusia County — You may not harvest by spearing in Volusia County inland waters with the exception of flounder and sheepshead, and only by the use of a barbed spear with three or fewer prongs.

* Special Local Laws also prohibit harvest by spearing in specific areas (Visit MyFWC.com/Fishing and select "Saltwater," "Recreational Regulations," "Full Text Rule by Species" and "Local Laws.")

Spearfishing

Spearfishing is a specific form of "spearing" defined as "the catching or taking of a fish through the instrumentality of a hand or mechanically propelled, single or multi-pronged spear or lance, barbed or barbless, operated by a person swimming at or below the surface of the water." In addition to the harvest species limitations above, you may not spearfish:

- For any species that cannot be harvested by spearing (see Spearing on pg. 18).
- For any species (freshwater or marine) in freshwater. Possession of spearfishing equipment in or on freshwater is also prohibited.
- Within the upper Keys no-spearfishing zone, which includes all state waters from the Miami-Dade County line down to and including Long Key.
- Within 100 yards of any designated public bathing beaches, commercial or public fishing piers, or portions of bridges where fishing is allowed.

- Within 100 feet of the unsubmerged portion of any jetty, except that spearing is allowed along the last 500 yards of any jetty that extends more than 1,500 yards from the shoreline.
- In or on any body of water under the jurisdiction of the Division of Recreation and Parks of the Department of Environmental Protection. Within these areas, the possession of spearfishing equipment is also prohibited except when such equipment is un-loaded and is properly stored upon watercraft passing nonstop through the area.
- Within the no-take areas of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary (Visit: www.floridakeys.noaa.gov)
- Within any area where spearfishing is prohibited by a Special Local Law (Visit MyFWC.com/Fishing and select "Saltwater," "Recreational Regulations," "Full Text Rule by Species" and "Local Laws.")

Powerheads, Bangsticks, Rebreathers

Harvest with the use of powerheads, bangsticks or rebreathers is prohibited in state waters, except that rebreathers are allowed for the harvest of lionfish. Within state waters, powerheads and bangsticks can be used for personal protection only, and cannot be used to harvest any species.
